2.3.2 – Students mentoring system available in the institution? Give details. (maximum 500 words)

Mentoring of students is conducted by the departments of the institution. The IQAC plans to conduct it in a systematic manner, so as to have better academic output. Informal Mentoring of students is based on the following objectives: •To increase the teacher-student contact hours • To identify and address the problems faced by slow learners and first generation learners • To encourage advanced learners • To decrease the student drop-out rates • To prepare students for the competitive world Every year, departments individually organize orientation sessions on the class commencement day for students of first semesters and explain the designing and implementation of the mentoring system of the department. In the mentoring process, all necessary information related to the student such as the contact number, email of the student, family income, category, gender etc are initially collected by the department from the office and the student. The IQAC plans to prepare systematic database format to be provided to the departments. Departments maintain the records of class tests/surprise tests, attendance records, records of student seminars etc related to the reviewing of the performance of the students. Departmental teachers maintain interaction with students through individual meetings. Teachers discuss with parents in informal manner and try to identify the problems faced by students and related issues. Time factor is a major constraint of the mentoring system, especially after introduction of the CBCS in the present academic year. To overcome this constraint, teachers sometimes suggest students to provide the list of difficult questions and problems faced by them while preparing for competitive examinations and then the teachers provide solutions by means of discussion. In some departments, tutorial classes are also organized for students. Though informal in nature, the personal counseling by some the departments resulted to be very beneficial for the students. 1. The continuous involvement of the sports teacher has given confidence to the students. The result is that the students have shown better performance in University and College level sports tournaments. 2. The NSS department arranges society oriented activities and by means of personal counselling inspires the students to participate in such activities. The students also participate in college cleanliness activity, tree plantation, blood donation and numbers of other activities throughout the year. 3. The women cell of the college often discusses with the girl students about the personal problem and helps the students to overcome such problems. As a result the girl students enjoy college routine in a free manner. 4. The biggest challenge is to decrease the drop-out rates of the college The IQAC of the college has planned to introduce a mentoring guideline for all departments from the next academic session to address this problem.

2.5.2 – Reforms initiated on Continuous Internal Evaluation(CIE) system at the institutional level (250 words)

The institution is an affiliated college. Examinations are conducted at the end of each semester by the affiliating University. College informs students about the university notices and circulars related to the examinations from time to time through student notice board, departmental notice boards, and also verbally by the faculty members of the department. All departments conduct internal examinations of students and students are well informed about these internal examinations well in advance by the department. Each teacher gives special attention to the internal assessment of the conducted unit tests. Each teacher discusses about the performance of the students in the class and gives special attention to the slow learners. In this way CIE system is followed which helps the teachers to involve the students in the process of learning.

| Arts, Commerce Science College believes in the academic, social, moral and cultural development of students by acquiring inputs from all stakeholders. Although the college does not maintain formally registered parent-teacher association, yet interactions of teachers with parents during parent-teacher meetings of different departments come up with new suggestions related to the overall development of the students. Teachers have been able to communicate with parents to prevent early marriages and other prejudices related to the drop-out of girl students. This has resulted in the increase in overall percentage of girl students in the college. Presently, the female students constitute 64 of the total students the college. Faculty members maintain attendance record of students. If a student shows poor attendance, then parents are informed about the same by faculty members and Principal and subsequently meetings are arranged by the college authority with the parents. In almost all cases, parents provide essential support and care to ensure proper attendance of their ward. . |
